Late Sh. Krishan Kumar Bhatia
24th August, 1929 - 2nd November, 2023

Krisan Kumar Bhatia, born in 1929, led a multifaceted life that seamlessly blended various roles. Beginning as an ex-armed forces individual, he transitioned into a profession as a librarian. Beyond his professional commitments, Bhatia actively participated in India's struggle for independence and dedicated himself to various social causes. His tireless efforts for the betterment of society continued until his passing in November 2023.

Operating from his modest single-story residence in Rajouri Garden, surrounded by opulent bungalows, Bhatia relied solely on his pension to fund his endeavors. Notably, he collaborated with the Tihar authorities, advocating for the promotion of reading habits among prisoners and emphasizing the importance of establishing libraries within prison facilities. His persistent advocacy led to the establishment of a branch of the Delhi Public Library (DPL) within Tihar jail. Post-retirement, Bhatia embarked on journeys to remote regions in Jammu and Kashmir, Himachal Pradesh, and Uttarakhand. His goal was to raise awareness about the advantages of rural libraries, reflecting his commitment to expanding access to knowledge in underserved areas. Known for his unwavering integrity and profound belief in social causes, Bhatia made a significant commitment by pledging his body to medical science before his demise. His life's work stands as a testament to the profound impact that one individual, fueled by dedication and a sense of social responsibility, can have on the betterment of society.
